

Deployment Manager

Kapsch CarrierCom Kft. (Budapest, Hungary)

Key Tasks:

- Responsible for proactively managing the end-to-end delivery of the Installation & Commissioning Work Package (WP) activities, to scope, budget, schedule & quality. The I&C WP could cover all or a combination of CAE, Installation and Commissioning, network element integration activities and the coordination of our Installation/civil partners.
- To understand all aspects of the deployment activities, conducting analysis of any issues arising and ensuring corrective actions are introduced to assure project completion and future improvement plan.
- Work with the Project Manager and other Work Package owners (Engineering, Order Management, Integration), to clearly define the Installation WP Scope of Work, entry and exit criteria and handover requirements and ensure completion within agreed timescales and manage any risk of delay.
- Perform audits of Partner delivered work packages to defined KCC standards.
- Establish and maintain a traceable documentary process to demonstrate compliance with all technical, commercial and regulatory requirements. Be responsible for the sign off of installation related activities on behalf of KCC for end Customer installations

Skills & Competencies:

- Technical expertise in Wireless Access Network Deployment, Installation & Commissioning
- Proven experience in Partner Management
- Customer Orientation, Technical Expertise, Initiative

Education/ Work Experience:

- Telecommunications degree or equivalent related work experience
- + 8 years of technical field experience focused in Access network operational deployments

Language Skills:

fluent English (mandatory)

Computer Literacy:

- Microsoft Office + Project

What we offer:

- competitive salary
- excellent working conditions
- possibility for development in an international team

Please send your curriculum vitae and motivation letter in Hungarian and English to Mr Tibor Marinkás via e-mail: tibor.marinkas@kapsch.net